Miguel Santos

Born in Portugal and currently living somewhere out there, MIGUEL SANTOS is an interdisciplinary artist/researcher.

He has been investigating intersecting perspectives in the Fine Arts and Cognitive Sciences, the exploration of perception and construction of meaning by the observer and employing these findings in the production of interactive installations, videos and photographic works, which have been presented in Portugal, Spain, Netherlands and UK.

Miguel is currently a PhD student at Sheffield Hallam University, UK. His work focuses in the production of works of art that engage the observer in a self-conscious experience.
